REPORT LARGE BARN, 2 SHEDS RAZED BY BLAZE

Firemen and apparatus from three communities, Gettysburg, New Oxford and Bonneauville, were called shortly after noon today when a large stone bank barn on the Harmon farm at Sugartown caught fire.

The fire had gained considerable headway before the first fire truck arrived, and spread to two wagon sheds nearby. The farm is tenanted by Thomas Niblets, Gettysburg R. 4, and is located on the road which runs from the end of the three-lane highway on Lincolnway East to Centennial. It is about three miles south of the Lincoln Highway.

Physician Summoned

Firemen, unable to save the barn and sheds, poured water on the house.

The short wave radio was used about 1 o'clock to summon Dr. Wilbur H. Miller, New Oxford, when Mrs. Niblets suffered a heart attack. The call was made to radio headquarters here and relayed by telephone to Dr. Miller in New Oxford.

Firemen said Niblets was driving a tractor with an upright exhaust pipe into a shed attached to the barn when the pipe caught on the top of the doorway. It set fire to the shed before he could back the tractor out.

Lost in the fire were 300 chickens, several tons of hay, and a number of pieces of farm equipment, including a new corn picker, firemen said.

FIREMEN WIN ANOTHER $100 PARADE PRIZE

The Gettysburg Fire Department added another $100 to its season's winnings in parade prizes when it was awarded first prize for the best appearing firemen's marching unit with music in the firemen's parade at Mt. Airy, Md. Thursday night.

Forty members of the fire department, headed by the Blue and Gray Band, participated in the parade. The banner carriers, color guard and marching men were followed by two pieces of apparatus. Parade judges were from Washington, D. C.

Prizes Total $645

Thursday night's $100 prize brings the total parade winnings this summer to $595. Through early season arrangements with the Blue and Gray Band, half the prize money won at parades where the firemen have been accompanied by the band goes to the latter organization. The band also will "split" a second prize of $50 with the fire company which it won at Emmitsburg last week.

Total winnings for both band and fire department are $645.

The Demonstration's For Stevenson

The second Lutheran World Federation Assembly gathered at Hannover, Germany, today with only one bishop from an Iron Curtain country permitted to attend, the Associated Press said.

The East German Communist ban on travel to the assembly "proclaims the totalitarianism of the Iron Curtain countries," said Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz of Gettysburg, the assembly's vice president, in an interview. Dr. Wentz is professor of church history at the Lutheran Theological Seminary here.

About 5,000 Lutherans from East Germany had sought to attend, but their travel permits were withheld. Lutheran leaders here from 24 countries said they still had received no word from the delegates of Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia who had hoped to be here.

5,000 Attending

This Communist obstruction, said Dr. Wentz, "will only intensify our determination to stand by our brethren in the east."

The assembly, attended by 5,000 delegates and guests was to open officially with a procession of 100 Lutheran officials to the historic Marktkirche (Market) Church founded in the 12th century. More than 29 bishops were there to take part in the ceremony.

Dr. Wentz said about 1,000 Americans are expected there before the assembly closes August 3. Seventy-five delegates officially represent 15 states.

Astonished At Progress

Commenting on conditions in West Germany, Wentz said he was "astonished at the improvement of this country since my last visit in 1948."

"Germany will be on top of the world," he said.

Mrs. Nancy C. Wagner, 82, a former resident of New Chester, died Thursday evening at 11:05 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Eisenhart, 100 N. Diamond St., York. She had resided at her daughter's home since last October.

Mrs. Wagner was the widow of Milton E. Wagner, who died 13 years ago. She was born in Adams County and was a daughter of the late Jeremiah and Susan C. (Weigle) Decker.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner had served for 12 years as members of the staff at the Hoffman Orphanage. She was a member of Emmanuel Reformed Church in Hampton. She was a member of the Mite Society of St. John's Reformed Church at New Chester and of the Willing Workers' Sunday School class there.

W. W. Nighthawk And Family Use Weather Eye To Select Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. (Weather) Nighthawk, that is Nighthawk, are rearing another family in the shadow of instrument shelter at the weather station on the roof of The Gettysburg Times building.

This is the fourth summer that the Nighthawk couple—or maybe descendants of the first Nighthawks that discovered the advantages of raising a family in the open with the help of Uncle Sam's weather instruments—has used the Times building roof.

A pair of balls of fluff about the size of a golf ball appeared the other day in place of the two brown-speckled eggs on the gravel-surfaced section of gently sloping roof. From now on, "home" will move about that section of the roof at the will of the youngsters for there is no nest and any spot on the roof seems as satisfactory as another.

The parent birds went undiscovered for some days because their coloring blends well with the roof color. Their roof section that they call home is no more than 12 feet from the weather instrument shelter. Whether it was the nearness of the weather station or the advantage of a roof offset that shelters the nest area from western storms that led to selection of the nesting site, no one can say.

Nation's Longest, Costliest Steel Strike Ending Without Clear Cut Victory To Anyone

WASHINGTON (AP)—The longest, costliest steel strike in American history in effect is over. Production is expected to resume next week.

The striking CIO Steelworkers Union was considered virtually certain today to ratify a strike-ending agreement reached at the White House after President Truman personally demanded — and got — a settlement.

It was not a clear cut victory for anyone concerned—the union, industry, or the government. There was give and take on all sides.

Announced by Truman

The end of the crippling, 53-day strike was announced last yesterday by the President himself, with CIO President Philip Murray and U.S. Steel Chairman Benjamin Fairless "have reached agreement on important basic issues" after day-long conferences, and predicted a "speedy resumption of steel production."

He said Murray would meet today with his 175-man Wage-Policy Committee to obtain ratification of the agreement.

Fairless, it was reliably learned, plans to make a personal appearance before this committee in a dramatic move aimed at wiping out any bitterness. The union invited him to make a short talk to the group after a closed session during which actual ratification of the agreement was scheduled.

Started June 2

At best it will be four or five days before any substantial production of steel is reached. It takes that long to heat up the banked blast furnaces which stand by workers have kept alive ever since the strike started June 2.

KEFAUVER IS OUTSMARTED BY ADLAI'S GROUP

By JAMES MARLOW

CHICAGO (AP)—It was like looking at a political party in convulsions. The Democrats tortured themselves yesterday to demonstrate publicly they need every vote they can get in November. They did it by making a farce of their attempt to get tough with the South.

And it was a cold-blooded day in which Sen. Estes Kefauver's political head was clubbed, making it easier for Illinois' Gov. Adlai Stevenson to get the presidential nomination.

When the convention opened Monday the delegates knew they couldn't spare any Southern votes as in 1948 when President Truman won even though the States Righters took 39 electoral votes from him.

Moody's Plan Fails

Nevertheless, a "Fair Deal" group, headed by Sen. Blair Moody of Michigan, decided on a showdown with the highly conservative Southerners who have made denunciation of "Fair Dealism" part of their careers.

It was a struggle to see who'd set the party tone. It was known that if the Southerners, or some of them, didn't like the platform or candidate, they might not go home and work for the party, leaving their states wide open to General Eisenhower, the GOP nominee.

This was the club the Southerners carried. Unscared, the Moody group demanded that the Southerners promise to work for the party no matter what happened here. A majority of the convention upheld this demand.

A frightening party split seemed likely. The White House called Chicago to work out a compromise. The Moody group compromised so much its original demands lost practically all meaning. Then all the Southern States agreed to this milk-and-water compromise demand, except Louisiana, Virginia, and South Carolina.

Convention Showdown

There had to be a showdown: Could those three states take part in the convention if they wouldn't agree to anything at all? In the end, those three states kept their seats, too, but they did not promise to work for the party. They simply said the party ticket would be on their state ballots in November.

But before this final settlement the convention was convulsed with the greatest series of parliamentary tangles, rollcalls, points of order. (Please Turn to Page 2)

JURY DECLARES YOUNG DRIVER WAS NEGLIGENT IN FATAL CRASH

A coroner's jury, at an inquest held Wednesday night at the Ewing Brothers Funeral Home, Carlisle, returned a finding of "gross negligence" against Lloyd Smith, 22, Gardner R. 2, driver of the automobile which crashed into another vehicle on Trindle Road, east of Carlisle, resulting in the death of Alfred Eugene Rupp, 65, of Mechanicsburg, last April 30.

According to testimony at the inquest, Smith was traveling toward Carlisle from Mechanicsburg when he came over the crest of a hill and crashed into the Rupp vehicle which was traveling east toward Mechanicsburg in the east-bound lane. Rupp died in Carlisle Hospital about 30 minutes after the accident.

Pronounced Intoxicated

State Policeman Robert Bruce, Carlisle sub-station, introduced a physician's certificate which declared Smith was "under the influence of alcohol and not in condition to drive an automobile." Smith has been given a hearing before Justice of the Peace William Dosh and held for court on a plea.

Smith, who testified that he had only two bottles of ale and one "shot" of whiskey about an hour before the accident, said he "did not see the Rupp car nor can he remember striking it."

Three other persons, who were with Smith enroute to Mechanicsburg where they picked up three used automobiles, testified in Smith's defense, substantiating the testimony of the defendant who is free in bail.

John Amsley, Carlisle, told the jury that enroute to Mechanicsburg they stopped in an orchard and "picked mushrooms for about one and one-half hours and then stopped at the Locust Point saloon where they had the ale, whiskey and sandwiches." Much the same testimony was offered by Ralph Day, Carlisle R. 1, and Roy Barriack.

Officer Bruce testified that Smith's car traveled at least 166 feet after the crash and stopped in a field.

SECRET TRUCE TALKS FAIL

MUNSAN, Korea (P)—The three-week news blackout was lifted from the Korean armistice talks today, showing the deadlock over prisoner exchange — final issue blocking a truce—still unbroken.

Despite a United Nations offer to return an additional 13,000 captives to the Communists, 18 off-the-record meetings since July 4 proved "completely fruitless," said Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. "We are no nearer a solution of the problem today than we were on July 4," the chief Allied delegate said.

Starting tomorrow proceedings will be made public daily as formerly.

The U. N. Command said it refused to back down on its decision not to return forcibly any prisoner to the Communists. Only 83,000 of 170,000 Allied-held POWs want to be repatriated, Harrison said. This is an increase of 13,000 over the figure submitted to the Reds earlier, before screening of POWs was completed.

The Allies said the Communists insisted on the return of 116,000 prisoners. These include 20,000 Chinese captives of whom only 6,400 will return voluntarily.

SEOUL, Korea (P)—French infantrymen today hurled back a 500-man Chinese Communist drive on T-Bone Hill in a bloody opening to the 26th month of the Korean War. French defenders of the Western Front hill inflicted heavy losses during two hours of pre-dawn hand-to-hand combat.

A frontline Allied officer estimated 65 Chinese were killed and 150 wounded. The cut-up Red forces withdrew two hours later.

HUGE TAKE FROM LOCAL TAX LAW

HARRISBURG (P)—The Internal Affairs Department today estimated nearly 100 million dollars has been collected from Pennsylvania taxpayers under the 1947 local tax law.

The biggest chunk of the money comes from local income taxes, followed by per capita taxes.

Marielle Hobart, research assistant in the Department's Bureau of Municipal Affairs, said municipalities and school districts are collecting about 32 million dollars a year under the law.

The law permits local bodies to tax anything not already taxed by the state with certain exceptions in rates and tax bases.

More than 5,000 local governmental units are eligible to enact taxes under the law, but only about 1,700 units have taken advantage of it.

Crippled Watchmaker Executed On Gallows

MONTREAL, Canada (P)—A crippled Quebec watchmaker, convicted of fashioning the time-bomb which brought death to 23 airliner passengers and crew in September, 1949, died early today on the gallows in Montreal's Bordeaux jail.

Genevieve Ruest, 54, helpless from the waist down but described as a "wizard with his hands," went to his death for "deliberately helping" jeweler J. Albert Quay murder the latter's 28-year-old wife by means of the explosion in flight. Ruest was carried to the scaffold in a wheelchair.

Quay was hanged January 12, 1951, for master-minding the bombing plot. He concocted the scheme for love of a young waitress and to collect $10,000 insurance on his wife's life.

KEFAUVER IS

der, and questions in modern convention history.

And in the midst of all this Kefauver got the ax treatment. It came about like this:

The convention was voting on whether Virginia, in effect, should be thrown out. If the vote was against Virginia, Louisiana and South Carolina faced the same verdict in turn.

Except for Tennessee, most of the Southerners were backing the candidacy of Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia. Tennessee was supporting its own son, Kefauver, who is too "Fair Dealish" for most of the South.

Tennessee Loses Face Solidly loyal to Kefauver, it cast all of its 28 votes for throwing out Virginia. With this vote Tennessee turned its back on its sister Southern States. With Virginia, Louisiana and South Carolina out, there'd be just that many less votes for Russell on the first ballot and therefore that many less against.

Pretty soon there were enough votes, and to spare, for dumping Virginia. But the vote isn't final until the chairman makes the official announcement.

Before he could do that, Illinois suddenly announced it was switching its vote, now casting 52 for seating Virginia, only eight against. It was too late now for Tennessee to undo the damage it had done itself among the other Southern States.

But Illinois could benefit by its switch. Since it now voted to help the South, if Russell after the first ballot clearly had no chance, the Southerners could repay this favor to Illinois by voting for Stevenson against Kefauver.

to Stevenson by re-entering the name of Vice President Alben Barkley in the nomination race.

In between the parliamentary rows Thursday night and early today speakers succeeded in offering in nomination the names of Stevenson, Kefauver, Harriman, Russell, Barkley, Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, Sen. William Fulbright of Arkansas, Sen. T. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, Gov. Williams of Michigan, Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts, and Oscar Ewings, federal security administrator. Sen. Brian McMahon of Connecticut was mentioned by his state, but said in a letter he couldn't run because of illness. Rep. William Green of Pennsylvania brought up Truman's name but didn't enter it because, he said, the President said he shouldn't.

ASHENFELTER IS YANKEE WINNER IN STEEPLECHASE

HELSINKI (P)—Horace Ashenfelter, the galloping FBI man from Glen Ridge, N. J., today won the Olympic 3,000 meters steeplechase. It was the first time an American has won the steeplechase since the modern Olympic Games began.

Ashenfelter's time was 8:45.8, breaking the Olympic record. This was the fastest time this event ever has been run in track history. There is no official world record for the steeplechase because courses vary.

Vladimir Kazantsev of Russia was second and John Disley of Great Britain was third.

Ashenfelter won when he successfully negotiated the water jump about 150 meters from the finish and Kazantsev faltered there. It had been a shoulder-to-shoulder duel all the way but the Russian forged ahead a yard on the backstretch of the last lap.

Biggest Upset Yet

The crowd of 70,000 regarded Ashenfelter's victory the biggest upset of the record - shattering meet.

The old Olympic steeplechase record was nine minutes, 3.8 seconds, set by Volmari Iso-Hollo of Finland in 1936.

Ashenfelter lowered this record to 8:51 in winning his qualifying heat last Wednesday. Kazantsev also bettered the old Olympic record in the trials.

The best listed non-Olympic record is 8:49.8, made by Kazantsev in Moscow in 1951.

12 Gold Medals

Kazantsev was timed in 8:51.6 in finishing second today and Disley ran it in 8:51.8.

This was the 12th gold medal the American track and field team has won in these games.

Ashenfelter, a consistent winner in longer races in the United States, never before had shown anything that would rank him with the great Europeans.

Iran's Big Cop Cites Red Danger

TEHRAN, Iran (P)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's new national police chief warned Iranians last night that Communists are attempting to use the nationalistic outbreaks which drove ex-Premier Ahmed Qavam from power to further "sinister" Red aims.

Speaking in a nation-wide radio broadcast, Police Chief Kazam Sheibani indicated members of the outlawed Tudeh (Communist) party had infiltrated Nationalist organizations.

"Sound out such elements from your ranks and try to know them and reveal their plans," Sheibani urged the Nationalists. "You must know that such people ostensibly but secretly prepare means to put into effect their filthy and perfidious plans."

5 EGYPTIAN OFFICERS HELD

CAIRO, Egypt (P)—A new Egyptian government, pledged to sweeping reforms, began to govern today under Premier Aly Maher Pasha and five high-ranking police officers were arrested.

The arrests were ordered by the new army commander in chief, Gen. Mohamed Naguib Bey, whose military coup Wednesday put Maher Pasha back into office. Naguib said the police officers conspired "to arouse trouble and undermine public security."

The new non-party Cabinet was sworn in yesterday in Alexandria where King Farouk is summering. It is Egypt's sixth government since riots in Cairo last January touched off a series of government crises and left the kingdom unstable politically. The Premier kept the key interior, foreign affairs and war portfolios for himself.

George Fair turned in a three-hitter as the Glenn L. Bream Garage laced the Texas Lunch 21-4 in the nightcap to pull to within a game of the league-leading Moose. The garagemen scored an even dozen runs in the second inning to win with ease. Fair collected four hits, including two homers. Altemose and Timbers also drove out home runs for their respective teams.

Eastern League

By The Associated Press
It sounds like a brother act, and Yasinski and Jasinski are the work horse team hauling the Elmira Pioneers toward the first division in the Eastern League.

Eddie Yasinski's six-hit pitching last night stretched the Pioneers' current winning streak to five games, as Elmira overran the Reading Indians, 8-4 at Elmira.

The other half of the duo, Walt Jasinski, will be gunning tonight for his ninth straight win when Scranton comes to town.

The fourth-place Binghamton Triplets dropped their third in a row to the Hartford Chiefs, 12-11, in a slugfest at Hartford.

Williamsport's Lowly Tigers, making their last appearance of the season in Scranton stadium, burrowed for cover under an 18-hit broadside as Scranton ran up its biggest hometown score of the year to win, 12-0.

Albany and Schenectady were not scheduled.

CARDS BEATEN BY MAX LANIER; DODGERS WIN

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
Are the New York Giants starting their big push?
Still 6½ games behind the Brooks, the Giants can draw new hope from the performance of Max Lanier, the ex-Cardinal.

Lanier's six-hitter against his old St. Louis mates yesterday for a 9-5 decision was his fourth win in his last five games. The 36-year-old lefty had been beaten the last three times he faced the Cards.

The Giants almost made up more ground but Brooklyn came back to shade Cincinnati, 2-1, on Duke Snider's 11th inning homer after the Reds had won the first half of a doubleheader, 3-2. As a result the Dodgers now have a 14-3 edge in season play over the Reds.

Ed Mathews, a top candidate for National League "rookie of the year," hit his 16th homer and later scored on Walker Cooper's double in Boston's 3-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Sid Gordon also homered for the Braves off loser Turk Lown. The Cubs had 13 hits off Jim Wilson and Lew Burdette.

The Phillies and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

Talk of a New York Yankee runaway in the American faded as Cleveland handed Tom Morgan a 4-2 loss in his last ball game before joining the Army. The win squared the series between the two contenders, leaving the fourth-place Tribe 5½ games back of the Yanks and only one percentage point behind third-place Washington.

With a chance to gain on the Yanks, both the runnerup Boston Red Sox and Washington fell down. Boston was shut out by Chicago's Lou Kretlow, 3-0, winning his first game of the season.

Walt Drope continued his long distance hitting for Detroit with a two-run tie-breaking homer in the eighth inning for a 4-2 edge over Washington. Bill Wight was the winner.

The St. Louis Browns ended their seven-game losing streak with a 4-3 win over the Philadelphia A's on Bobby Young's sixth-inning homer.

ALL-STAR GAME LISTED; OTHER LOOP CONTESTS

Headlining the week-end baseball program will be the annual All-Star game of the South Penn League for the benefit of injured players to be staged Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Bendersville field.

One team, composed of players from Hanover, Greenmount, Brush-town and Barlow, will be managed by Earl Staub and Dale George, while the other team will be chosen from the Hunterstown, Granite, Bonneauville and Bendersville squads and will be managed by Chet Ogden and Mel King.

The Gettysburg Eagles will attempt to inaugurate a new winning streak Saturday afternoon when they play the Hanover Legion at Hanover in a Mason-Dixon Junior League tilt. Littlestown will play at Brunsdown, while the Hanover Kiwanis and New Oxford will meet Monday evening at New Oxford.

Sunday's Program
Sunday's program in the Penn-Mar League includes Westminster at Emmitsburg, Fairfield at Littlestown, New Oxford at Thurmont, and Cashtown at Union Bridge.

Allentown's Cardinals were soothing themselves today with the old saying: "You can't win them all."

The Cardinals, who have been on the rampage for some weeks in the Interstate League and rising in the league standings all the while, were shut out last night by Salisbury, 3-0.

The Allentown defeat meant losing a notch to first place Hagerstown. The Marylanders now are six and a half games out in front of Allentown, for they turned back Sunbury, 9-8.

York kept a firm grip on third place with a 9-2 win over last place Harrisburg. Lancaster licked Wilmington 7-3 and dumped the Blue Rocks into the second division.

New Trotting Mark

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—A new world trotting record for one and one-quarter miles is on the books today but the name of the holder of the mark comes as something of surprise.

If a record was to be set in last night's $25,000 American Trotting championship at Roosevelt raceway it figured to be by Pronto Don, generally rated the country's No. 1 trotter from the Hayes Fair Acres stable of Duquoin, Ill.

But the surprise came when Silver Riddle, owned by George B. Begol of Clatskanie, Ore., beat the great Pronto by a half-length in 2:37 2-5. The old record for the rarely raced distance was 2:40½ set by Sonny Boy in 1941.

RECORDS FALL IN OLYMPICS

HELINSKI (AP)—Five days, 20 events completed, 18 records equaled or broken.

That's the tremendous pace the track and field athletes are setting in the 1952 Olympic Games.

The stars of the show yesterday were the record smashing Zatopeks of Czechoslovakia. Emil, balding, clumsy-looking Czech Army officer, ran the fifth fastest 5,000 meters in history, reducing the Olympic standard to 14:06.6.

His attractive wife, Dana, tossed the javelin 50.47 meters (165 feet 7.05 inches) for a record in her division. It was the first time a

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
THE COUNTRY CHURCHYARD
There is something ennobling thought provoking about a Country Churchyard. The poet Thomas Gray immortalized it in his famous "Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard." Every few days I pass one of these beautiful memorial near my island retreat during the summer months, with its graves of those who worked and lived near by.

I like to look upon these graves in a Country Churchyard, for they memorialize those who lived out useful lives and were an example of the fulfillment of life itself.
Most of those who lie in these peaceful spots were loved and blessed in life in the territory about, and many a prayer of remembrance is silently offered by those who pass and look upon these graves.

Sometime I hope I may visit a New England Churchyard and look upon that simple little stone that marks the grave of a little girl, with the simple inscription engraved thereon as follows: "She was so Pleasant." I can imagine the thoughts of those who look upon such an inscription. No one could help but be inspired to carry away that line in his memory and heart.

No longer is there room for a resting place in many of these Country Churchyards. Many of them contain no graves at all, being surrounded with no more than a white picket fence, with a simple garden of flowers within. These little churches are always beautiful and inspiring, and upon a sabbath you will note people coming from miles around to worship within them. Country folks are most always God-fearing, honest and sturdy—the backbone of any community.

Wherever you look upon a Country Churchyard, you know that thereabout are those who are the salt of this earth, representatives of what has made life worth while — developers of the land and builders of the nation. It is from such sections that the great of this earth have sprung!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Refuge of Understanding!"

Just Folks
GARDEN THOUGHT
It's comforting at times to see How patient growing things can be;
How true, in spite of wind and rain,
The peonies and phlox remain.
Who walks a garden round may find
The rare delight of peace of mind.
Though mortals change from day
to day,
Both bud and blossom steadfast
stay.
As we have known it down the years,
Each bloom we see again appears.
One never thinks to ask how old
Are candytuft and marigold.
No sign of age! No weakness shows!
Still young and lovely is the rose.
And it is comforting to know
The flowers will stay though we must go.

SWEET, SPICY PRESERVES ARE SURE TO PLEASE
By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
If you'd like to try your hand at making sweet spicy preserves to serve with cold meats, poultry, or curry, here are two small-quantity recipes that give delicious products. These recipes feature peaches and watermelon — fruits widely available right now.

Before you do your preserving, make sure you buy good quality fruit and that you have fresh spices on hand. This way you'll get the best flavor results. Dry mustard, powdered ginger, ground cloves and paprika are the spices you'll need for these two recipes.

Store spices in containers with tightly fitting covers. If covers are loose, spice flavors deteriorate quickly. See also that your spice shelf is not too close to the kitchen range, as heat destroys the volatile oils that supply the fragrance spices give.

PEACH CHUTNEY
Ingredients: 4 cups peeled and pitted cut-up peaches, 1 cup cider vinegar, 1/4 cup finely chopped onion, 3/4 cup sugar, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 3/4 teaspoon powdered ginger, 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 cup seedless raisins.

Method: In heavy wide-bottom pan, mix together peaches, vinegar, onion, sugar, salt, mustard, ginger, cloves, paprika, lemon
rind, lemon juice, and raisins.
Cook slowly until clear and thickened, stirring often. Pour into sterilized jars and seal at once.
Makes about 2 pints. If chutney is to be stored in refrigerator it will not be necessary to sterilize the jars.

GINGERED WATERMELON PRESERVES
Ingredients: 6 cups prepared watermelon rind, 4 cups sugar, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon powdered ginger, one-third cup lemon juice, 2 teaspoons grated lemon rind, 2 cups crushed canned pineapple (with juice as it comes from can).

Method: To prepare watermelon, pare off green skin and trim off soft pink portion, leave a narrow edge of firm pink pulp on white rind. Cut rind into small cubes.
Soak overnight in brine made of 2 tablespoons of salt to 1 quart water. Drain and rinse. Cook in clear water 45 minutes or until tender. Drain. In heavy wide-bottom pan, mix the 4 cups sugar, 2 cups water, ginger, and lemon juice. Bring to boil and simmer 5 minutes to form syrup. Add lemon rind and pineapple and simmer gently until rind is clear (about 45 minutes) and preserve is thickened; stir occasionally.
Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal. Makes about 3 pints. If preserve is to be stored in refrigerator it will not be necessary to sterilize the jars.

MR. GAVIN ENDS GUESSING GAME; HE'S FOR ADLAI

CHICAGO (AP) — The ball is over today for the Democratic National Convention's political Cinderella.

He can take off his mask and be just plain Thomas J. Gavin, councilman of Kansas City, Mo.

When it came time for Missouri to ballot, he cast one-half vote for delegate Harry S. Truman of Independence, Mo., president of the United States.

His VIP-type badge hung heavily on his chubby chest. It was engraved, "Dean G. Acheson, secretary of state." That was so he could wait with ease about the jam-packed Convention Hall.

Ends Guessing Game

Neither the real Truman nor the real Acheson was at the convention. They were in Washington.

His biggest moment came yesterday. He ended a long guessing game, on whom Truman would support at a Missouri caucus.

"I intend to cast Mr. Truman's vote for the governor of Illinois, Mr. Stevenson."

It was, he said, "the President's choice."

BLAZE NEARLY PANICS CROWD

CHICAGO (AP) — Thousands of television viewers saw an unscheduled bit of drama at the Democratic National Convention early today when a burning newspaper threatened to set off a stampeding panic.

Assistant Fire Commissioner Anthony J. Mullaney expressed the opinion the blaze may have been set deliberately to force a recess in the marathon session.

Three men, including Ames Heacock, president of Air Transport Associates, Inc., of Seattle, were burned slightly while putting out the fire.

With TV cameras aimed at the scene, Peter J. Cloutery of Boston, an assistant sergeant at arms, grabbed a microphone from Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina and cried out:

"Don't get panicky. It's only a newspaper. It will be put out in a minute."

He kept repeating this until the blaze was extinguished.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press
Batting, Duke Snider, Dodgers—Hit 100th major league homer in 11th inning to win second game from Cincinnati, 2-1, after Brooks lost opener, 3-2.
Pitching, Lou Kretlow, White Sox — Stopped slugging Red Sox with two hits, 3-0, for first win of season.

Charles Burton in 1848 made the first baby carriage, followed by protests from pedestrians because people wheeling the contraptions ran into them. Burton moved to England and opened a factory.

Removal of both adrenal glands from animals results in death in about 48 hours.

Democratic Platform

CHICAGO (AP) — The Democratic party's 1952 platform in brief:

Civil rights — Favors federal legislation to wipe out racial discriminations. Declares co-operative efforts of state and local governments are required also.

Foreign policy — Promises to carry on the "practical and successful" policies developed under Roosevelt-Truman administrations. Sets a goal of "peace with honor."

National defense — Pledges the party to stand "unequivocally" for

"strong, balanced" defense forces for this country — land, sea and air.

Inflation — Promises to strengthen controls which it says were weakened by action of Republican members of Congress.

Government spending — Pledges preservation of the financial strength of the government. Says "New Deal" and "Fair Deal" financial policies have given the nation its greatest prosperity in history.

Pledge Tax Slack

Taxes — Promises reductions, especially for lower-income people, as rapidly as defense requirements permit. Opposes federal sales tax.

Agriculture — Endorses recent action of Congress boosting minimum price support levels for the next two years and promises price aid for commodities not now protected.

Labor — Advocates repeal of Taft-Hartley Act.

Small and independent business — Urges laws designed to provide "favorable incentives" to the establishment and survival of independent businesses, especially through tax incentives.

Natural resources — Promises "redoubled" action to conserve and develop natural resources, including development of river basins for flood control, irrigation and generation of power.

Atomic energy — Pledges pro-

It saves your strength - and it might save your life

CAN you imagine parking a car as easily as you steer it on a straightaway?

You twirl the steering wheel with one hand—turn the front wheels until you get the last inch of advantage from Buick's short "turning radius"—spot the car in a tight spot at the curb—or swing out when the car parked in front of you seems impossibly close.

For this alone a lot of people—women especially—are saying that Buick's Power Steering is the biggest advance since Dynaflo Drive.*

But you're going to find out something more as you pile up the miles.

You're going to feel the same confident and thrilling sense of command you have always felt in a Buick, because Power Steering only goes into action when extra effort is needed to turn the wheels.

You're going to find that your front wheels track just as they always have—that they automatically swing back on course, after you've made a turn, when you ease your grip on the steering wheel.

You're also going to find that Power Steering takes over when your front wheels hit loose dirt or sand—road irregularities and chuck-holes—and smooths down their jerk or tug on the wheel in your hands.

All this adds to the ease and pleasure of driving. But it adds to the safety, too, because, in the rare event of a blowout, Power Steering helps you keep control. There's no sudden and violent jerk ever when this helping hand's on the job.

Add to this the level-gaited serenity of Buick's Million Dollar Ride—the "rarin' to go" exuberance of its Fireball 8 Engine—the spread-out room, the luxurious fabrics—the way this great performer can turn up its nose at gas stations—and there's only one smart thing for you to do:

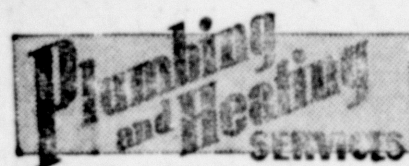

Drop in—or pick up your phone—and arrange to give this marvel a tryout. Even the price says, Better buy Buick now.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Now available on Super as well as Roadmaster—optional at extra cost.

DEMOCRATS ARE ACTING AGAIN LIKE DEMOCRATS

By ED CREAGH
CONVENTION HALL, Chicago

Well, the country is back to normal. The Democrats are acting like Democrats again.

They fought and they raged. They got confused, noisy, sentimental and, finally dog-tired in that marathon session which ground on into the wee hours of this morning.

A few snapshots for your memory book:

Gov. Robert F. Kennon of Louisiana, sadly bidding farewell to the convention that seemed about to boot him and his delegation right out into the stockyards.

"Good-bye," he quavered, "and God bless you."

P. S. He was still in his seat at an early hour this morning as this was being written.

As a matter of fact, there is a sort of enraged affection between the Northern and Southern Democrats.

They seem to need each other—like a husband and wife who battle all week for the fun of making up on Saturday night.

A little diner right across from Convention Hall displays the sign: "Disrespectful persons and those under the influence of liquors are not welcome."

Easily the worst joke committed at this convention is a campaign slogan contributed by a newspaperman to "favorite son" Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams of Michigan.

young people and adults have served in 235 caravans.

Before entering the field as a member of a caravan every "caravan" spends 10 days of intensive training at one of five caravan training centers. This climaxes a period of several months study and preparation at home. At these centers members are given basic training in all phases of the Methodist Youth Fellowship program and specific training in two or more phases. They are trained to work with all age groups within the MYF.

On completion of their training, caravans spend a period of seven weeks working in local Methodist churches, staying one week with each church. Their aim is to give direction and leadership to the development of a youth program in each church which fulfills the ideals and purposes of the MYF. They assist local youth in planning programs of evangelism, world friendship and community service. They give suggestions for worship services, lead informal study groups, direct recreation, help initiate work projects and interpret the youth program of the church to civic leaders.

The committee from the local Methodist Church planning details of the visit includes: Miss Verna Kitzmiller, Mrs. Forrest Craver, Mrs. Ralph Wickerham, Mrs. William Penney, Darlene Kennell, Barbara Hankey, Robert Dillman and Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr., local pastor.

Sunday School Lesson

By
Rev. Dr. Howard R. and Margaret C. Gold

PREPARATION FOR SERVICE
1 Samuel 1:20, 24-28; 3:1 to 16:4
Memory Verse: The child Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with the Lord, and also with men. 1 Sam. 2:26

As we have seen in previous assignments God does not leave his people without leadership. A new period in Israel's development as a nation was now about to come and a new leader was required. That man was Samuel. Today we study his preparation for the task.

Hannah, wife of Elkanah, felt bitter sorrow because she was childless, and prayed fervently for a son. If the Lord would grant her desire she would dedicate him to the Lord's service. Her prayer was answered and in due time the child Samuel (meaning, name of God) was dedicated to the Lord with appropriate rites in the Temple. So began the life of one of the most inspiring characters in the Old Testament. Godly parents were essential in God's preparation of a devoted and effective leader. It was that way with Timothy whose mother and grandmother by their consecrated lives raised a faithful helper to the great Paul. It is still true that really great characters owe the high quality of their lives to devout parents. No doubt it was from their lips that little Samuel first heard the stories of how God watched over his chosen people. No church school, however, well conducted, can take the place of instruction and example in the Christian home.

But the time came when the child Samuel was "returned to the Lord" as the Bible story tells it. That is, he was taken to the Temple and left there with the old priest Eli whose assistant he became. Here we have an example of home and church cooperation. The home trains (or should) the child in Christian virtues; the church trains in public worship and in service, applying what has been taught. If either fails much has been lost, perhaps permanently. In the rituals of the Temple worship were many opportunities for Samuel to be helpful. We may be certain he performed his duties well which trained him for other duties as time went on.

An incident occurred which showed the alertness of the boy, and also a difficult task assigned to him. It was the voice of the Lord calling Samuel three times. Each time came the prompt reply, "Here am I," and then the command which was to tell Eli that because he had not reproved his two immoral sons they would not succeed him in the priesthood. Even in his early youth Samuel was responsive to God's call to duty embarrassing as it might be. Which leads us to say that to keep an ear open to a divine call is an essential in Christian living; and distasteful commands must be obeyed.

The need for strong leadership in all areas of life is growing as life becomes more complex. This means that the home is increasingly important as a primary training school. And that means parents must be conscious of their duties and opportunities. First that they recognize the responsibility to keep out of the home influences that are not wholesome and again to bring into the family circle only what is of value in building strong character. Much of what television offers is not helpful. It requires planning and persistent effort to keep the home above all Christian.

The parents of Samuel came to the temple each year to offer their sacrifice. The consecrated parents will go to church. They will also make certain that their children are there in school and often at the worship service. And as Samuel was busy in many ways about the Temple helping the aged Eli, so there are many tasks in a live modern church which children can perform; many opportunities to receive training for still more essential service. Israel was waiting for Samuel's great leadership. The world today is in need of many Samuels.

Wake 'em up, GABRIEL!

There isn't much music coming out of that horn. But one thing's certain: this little fellow is making plenty of noise.

If it happens to be Sunday morning, when the family sleeps late, this sturdy musician isn't going to receive much praise. His lungs are strong, though, and he's going to sit there and toot that trumpet until Mom or Dad takes it away from him.

All of his playmates are at Sunday School, so you really can't blame him for trying to while away the idle hours. Unfortunately, his parents haven't got the Church-going habit, so this boy will probably grow up like them and sleep away the hours in which he could be getting spiritual nourishment.

You've got the right idea, Gabriel. Wake them up to their responsibility!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

RAYBURN TELLS NATION NOT TO CHANGE HORSES

CHICAGO (AP) — The American people won't trade Democratic party prosperity for Republican promises this fall, says Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn.

In a speech to the Democratic convention on Wednesday Rayburn stressed the don't-change-horses-in-midstream idea with which the Democrats hope to win in November.

"The Republican leadership tells you that you ought to change," Rayburn said. "I suggest that you treat this proposition with deep distrust."

New Candidate, Old Party
"What they ask of you is a modest request from their point of view. It is only that you trade your new car for an old buggy; swap your television set for a magic lantern; jump from the bed into a strait-jacket of uncertainty."

Rayburn told the delegates the GOP tried, after choosing Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as its presidential nominee, to say a new Republican party had been born.

But he said: "The proof that nothing has changed is clear. . . . It is the same old party with a new candidate. . . . The American people are not going to trade prosperity for promises."

Rayburn made his speech in accepting the convention's permanent chairmanship.

President Spares Puerto Rican's Life

IRON ORE TAX HIGHER

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Iron ore occupation taxes to be collected by Minnesota this year will total $26,275,375, a 40 per cent hike over the $18,822,662 paid last year. The tax is to be paid by 40 companies operating 107 mines. Nearly 39 per cent of the total is assessed against the Oliver Iron Mining Co. The assessment was based on a net marketable 77,165,584 tons of iron ore.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Farm researchers of a regulator company (Minneapolis - Honeywell) report that cows throw off so much body heat that the resultant condensation is a factor in the deterioration of farm buildings. Twenty cows generate enough heat to warm a five-room house on a winter day, they say. Experts are now trying to develop more scientifically controlled barn temperatures.

ITALIAN REDS, JAIL-HARDENED LOT OF TOUGHS

ROME (AP) — Italy's Communist leaders are a jail-hardened, battle-tried, Moscow-trained lot of dedicated Marxists.

They are utterly unlike the masses of Italy's Communist Party — biggest west of the Iron Curtain — which they have held under control.

A survey of the 104 Communists who became members of the Constituent Assembly at the end of the war shows that under Fascism 65 of them had been sentenced to a total of 500 years of jail and served about 260 years of it.

Of the 131 Communist deputies now in parliament, 91 were jailed for political activity against the Fascist regime. Fifty-five of the current 67 Communist senators got the same treatment.

300,000 Liquidated

The Communists, best organized of the partisans who fought Fascists and Nazis during the war, retaliated, but not to the extent claimed. Neo-fascist propaganda says that 300,000 Fascists were liquidated during and after the partisan uprising of April 25, 1945.

Interior ministers Mario Scelba, in the government's first official report on the victims, said the number was not 300,000 but 2,344. Neo-fascists have attacked the government's figure. Other previous estimates, including one by Italian writer Carlo Siminai, who made a prolonged investigation, had set it at about 40,000. Among leading Italian Communists are:

Palmiro Togliatti—still top man, although there are recurring reports that he will be replaced. Dapper and partial to double-breasted, well-cut suits, he started as a Socialist. He broke away in 1921, when he was 30, to help found the Italian Communist party. He has been arrested twice. He fought in Spain against Franco, and broadcast from Moscow to Italy during World War II.

"Perfect Bolshevik"

Pietro Secchia—number two man, ten years younger than Togliatti and known by Moscow as "the perfect Bolshevik." Big and husky, he carries the battle name of "Botte," meaning both blows and barrels. He is most frequently discussed as Togliatti's possible successor. With Togliatti—who made at least two hazardous secret trips to Northern Italy during the war — Secchia organized preparations for the April uprising.

Luigi Longo — generally considered third man of the Communist Italian triumvirate. In Spain, Longo was inspector general of five international brigades totaling 50,000 men. He is generally held to be top man of the Communist underground apparatus, whose hidden arms are constantly being unearthed by Italian police.

From the end of the war to the end of 1951 police discovered and seized this well-oiled, protected material: 169 cannons, 695 mortars, 5,927 machine guns, 34,962 sub-machine guns, 159,975 rifles, 33,888 revolvers and pistols, 296 military radios, 1,113 tons of explosive, 226,603 hand grenades, 20,000,000 rounds of HARRISBURG (AP)—Mrs. Rebecca K. Hammer, 43, of New York city, was killed Wednesday when an automobile she was driving overturned off the Pennsylvania Turnpike five miles east of the Harrisburg east interchange. No other cars were involved.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Penn State's football games, both home and away, will be broadcast in 1952 for the 15th consecutive year.

E. B. McCoy, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, today announced the establishment of a 14-station Pennsylvania radio network to broadcast the games.

FINDS EVERY DEMOCRAT IS "KING-MAKER"

(Editor's Note: Trellis Mae Peeble, America's most average wife, finds that every Democrat is a king-maker.)

By HAL BOYLE
CHICAGO, (AP)—Dear darling Wilbur,

"Well, honey, the Democratic Convention right now is like a barber-shop quartet where everybody wants to sing tenor."

This was the showdown day to pick the presidential nominee, and there are still more candidates than there are delegates. If the convention charged each one a nominating fee, it could wipe out the national debt.

Annoyed With Coyness
The candidates are all so nervous they are trading each other up as well as delegates. But the one they are most angry at is Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Illinois sphinx who won't say yes and can't say no.

Admiral Adlai still seems to add up as the popular favorite, but a lot of Democrats are getting annoyed at his coyness.

"I think Stevenson just confuses this convention with a radio give-away program," said one delegate. "He will accept the nomination all right, but he figures if he waits a little longer he maybe also can win an electric refrigerator, a new car and a week's trip to Bermuda."

Alben May Be Lucky
With balloting time so near, everybody is as nervous as a cat in a dog pound. The donkey men are all ears, listening to the rumors . . . rumors . . . that fly around like sparrows in a popcorn storm.

"Somehow, dear, I think Alben Barkley is lucky to be out of it all— if he really is. I saw him give his farewell speech last night, and I will remember that grand old man all my life."

When Vice President Barkley finished his speech, there were tears in the eyes of everybody.

His Lifetime In His Eyes
When the ovation was over at last and he had shaken the hands of all the politicians who came up to say goodbye, he just stood quietly there for a moment. He looked out past the waving banners, up to the big signs saying, "61 million jobs" and "Twenty years of plenty." He looked at the portraits of Democratic chieftains—Jefferson, Jackson, Cleveland, Wilson, Roosevelt, and Truman.

He stood there all alone at the summit of his life, and, oh Wilbur,

Machinist Held In Wife's Death

WILKES-BARRE (AP)—A 46-year-old machinist has been held on a charge of murder in the pistol slaying of his wife.

Dist. Atty. Louis G. Feldman said Jonah L. Roberts, of nearby Edwinstown, was committed to Luzerne County Prison by State police last night after a hearing before Justice of the Peace W. Howell Evans of Wyoming to await grand jury action.

Feldman said Roberts denied the June 10 slaying. Roberts repeatedly has said two hitchhikers shot and killed his wife on a lonely road near Dupont, Pa., after she resisted their advances.

Feldman said, however, Roberts' statements "are not in accordance with the investigation" conducted by state police.

HAZLETON MAN SLAIN BY COP AFTER CHASE

EAST STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A man identified as Raymond C. Noss, 28, of Hazleton, was shot to death on Tuesday after he had been chased by a state trooper seeking a stolen car.

State Police Private Peter Walsh said the car was reported stolen while its owner, Stanley Van Vleet, of Buck Hill Falls, Pa., was in an East Stroudsburg hotel.

Walsh received a radio report to watch for the car and when he spotted it on Route 209, he gave chase.

Ignored Order To Stop
Five miles east of East Stroudsburg, the car stopped and the driver started toward a taproom. Walsh ordered the man to stop six times and then fired one shot.

Doctors at General Hospital here said the bullet entered Noss' back and emerged through the chest. He was dead on arrival at the hospital.

Walsh said that Noss stopped twice to pick up hitchhikers between East Stroudsburg and the scene of the shooting, once to pick up two small boys from a nearby camp and the second time to offer a ride to Walter Gabbo, Coaldale.

his lifetime was in his eyes. He lifted his hands and shook them gravely to the four corners of the great hall, like a solemn old Indian chief saying farewell to the sun, and then he turned and walked out of the light and into the dark.

RAYBURN MAY HAVE WINKED AT MANEUVERS

THE WORLD TODAY
By JAMES MARLOW

CHICAGO (AP)—Maybe Sam Rayburn just got something in his eye when the right eyelid dropped and opened, quick as a wink, or maybe it was a wink.

Like the 74-year-old Alben Barkley of Kentucky, Rayburn has been mentioned as a possible presidential candidate. And these two old-timers have something else in common. They have identical jobs on opposite sides of the capitol. As vice president, Barkley presides over the Senate. The 70-year-old Rayburn presides over the House as speaker.

The similarity sort of ends there. Rayburn makes few speeches. Barkley is famous for his. Last night both made speeches at the convention, first Rayburn, then Barkley.

A Hot Rostrum
Rayburn got nice applause but little attention. Barkley got an ovation and the delegates listened. After this speechmaking, Rayburn got down to the business for which he'd been chosen: Presiding over the convention as permanent chairman. He had inherited a hot rostrum.

First order of business confronting Rayburn was reading of the platform. This was done by Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, chairman of the platform committee. He then moved the platform be adopted.

Before McCormack had even started Rayburn confided to newsmen that a Tennessee delegate—this was Paul Whitaker, a supporter of Sen. Kefauver—wanted to ask the convention to include some suggestions of his in the platform.

Texas Banner Waving
Instead of calling Whitaker when McCormack finished, Rayburn asked the convention to vote on the platform. It was by voice vote. He listened to the shouts of yeas and nos and decided the platform had been approved.

At once the Mississippi and Georgia delegations got Rayburn's eye. They said they wanted to be on record as voting no. The civil rights plank in the platform angered the Southerners.

Next the Texas banner began to wave, the usual convention signal that a delegation wanted to be recognized. If one Southern State after another followed suit, pretty soon it would be the turn of South Carolina, Virginia and Louisiana.

Quick Maneuvers
And if they tried to vote, and their right to vote was challenged, the fat might be in the fire. Rayburn either didn't see the Texas banner or chose to ignore it. He suddenly announced that Whitaker had asked to be heard but, Rayburn explained, he had not been able to find him before. Now, Rayburn said, Whitaker could talk.

When that was done, in a moment or so, Rayburn suddenly banged his gavel, recessing the convention for the night. That ended any chance of a party split, for the time being anyway.

As he turned his back on the convention and started to walk away from the rostrum, Rayburn's right eyelid suddenly snapped shut and just as suddenly snapped open as he looked at a friend on the platform.

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Nebraska was a ship of state without a captain during the Republican National Convention.

Gov. Val Peterson attended the convention. Lt. Gov. Charles Warner was there as a delegate. Next in the chain of command would be the speaker of the legislature. But the speaker, Ed Hoyt, had resigned. That would make the chairman of the legislature's judicial committee the acting-governor. But the committee chairman, Sen. Jack McKnight, also had resigned.

Beyond that, the law doesn't say.

10TH COMING UP
NEW YORK (AP)—Asbestos heir Tommy Manville and his ninth wife, Anita Roddy-Eden, have separated after 12 days of marriage. In today's New York Daily News appeared the following full-page advertisement: "Tommy Manville Jr. is no longer responsible for any bills incurred by his ninth wife, Anita Eden Manville."

DECISION FOR P.A. DELEGATES BEING DELAYED

By CHARLES WELSH
CHICAGO (U.S.)—Showdown time arrived for Pennsylvania delegates and all the rest of the Democratic Convention today. But for the 80-member Keystone State group it looked like a last-possible-minute decision.

First order of business when the convention got underway was balloting on presidential nominations. But a few hours in advance of the session the Pennsylvanians didn't know how they would be counted.

A scheduled caucus yesterday morning, following a delegation breakfast, had produced only about an hour of conversation that came to an end early today. There was no opportunity for a caucus.

Second Vote Postponed
Pennsylvania did vote once, a 57-13 alignment in favor of seating the contested Virginia delegation. That vote was arrived at by agreement between the delegation chairman, former U. S. Sen. Francis J. Myers and backers of Sen. Estes Kefauver. Myers is floor leader of the forces seeking the nomination for Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

A second opportunity came at midnight, and for a moment looked like it might be the same sort of a showdown the Pennsylvania Republican Convention group reached here two weeks ago before the first GOP nomination ballot.
But Myers postponed Pennsylvania's vote after three Kefauver backers, State Sen. Samuel G. Neff of Ellwood City, Philadelphia's Mayor Joseph S. Clark and Dist. Atty. Richardson Dilworth, rejected his offer of an agreement. They insisted they wanted to poll the group, although Myers had offered to "split the delegation" in a 35-35 vote on the question of continuing or recessing the session.

Sought Quick Victory
Stevenson backers at that time still were hoping for a presidential vote during the night, and a quick victory. Kefauver forces were fighting to force a delay.

At one point Myers flatly accepted the challenge and told his aides to "pass the word to our people" on how to vote. Had such a roll call come about, it would have been an out-and-out test of strength between the Stevenson forces and those backing Kefauver and other candidates.

But the strategy of delay, either intentional or accidentally, postponed the showdown. By the time the roll call reached Pennsylvania the issue had been settled and the

Nation's

of some 380 struck plants will sell for at least $5.20 a ton more than before the strike started.
A few minutes after Truman's dramatic announcement the government approved a price increase of that amount for raw, or carbon, steel. Specialized, high-alloy steel will get a boost of $5.65 a ton.

Was Wilson Figure
The $5 price increase, ironically enough, was the price increase Charles E. Wilson, as defense mobilizer, had said the industry should get to compensate for higher wage costs. Wilson said he thought he had presidential approval for an over-ceiling boost but Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall refused to go along and said that

IDLE STEELMAN IN GOLF LEAD

HERSHEY, Pa. (U.S.)—The steel strike hurt Eli Thomas' pocketbook but it helped him gain a temporary advantage over Pennsylvania's public course golfers.
The lanky, 33-year-old railway clerk from Carnegie held a one-stroke lead going into today's second round of the 72-hole State Publinx tourney at the Hershey Park course. He shot a one-over par 72 yesterday to lead the 137 pay-as-you-play golfers.

"I've been laid off due to the steel strike and it's given me a chance to brush up on my golf," Thomas said.
Thomas, who finished in a three-way tie for second place last year, missed a chance to pull even farther ahead of the pack yesterday when he went over par on the last two holes. He three-putted on the 445-yard 17th then dropped his approach shot into a creek on the tough 476-yard 18th.

A stroke behind the leader were Bob Schoener Jr., of Allentown, the 1951 state high school champion, and Siroe Startoni of Hershey, who won the Harrisburg district title last week.

FOP OF STATE ELECT OFFICERS

HARRISBURG (U.S.)—An Allegheny County motorcycle patrolman, Frank J. Topelski, is the new president of the Pennsylvania Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police.
Topelski won a spirited contest yesterday with former Vice President James C. Daugherty, Pittsburgh, to succeed F. William McCallum, Philadelphia, who had been president for eight years.

Named vice president at the concluding session of the biennial F. O. P. conference here was Thomas Brace, Reading. He defeated Samuel H. Arrell of Delaware County Lodge 27, financial secretary; William L. Doll, weary Kefauver group somewhat reluctantly agreed to the 35-35 offer, avoiding a roll call that would have taken a long time.

Sharp Differences
If nothing else, the haggling that went on in the 30 minutes or so when the Pennsylvania vote was under discussion showed a sharp difference of opinion still remained among the delegates.

Whether this situation has been the reason for Myers failure to summon the caucus for a vote was anybody's guess.

Neither Myers nor National Committeeman David L. Lawrence, who remain in firm control of the delegation leadership, would agree that was the case. But Kefauver backers said they were confident they could muster more votes than the 14 1/2 preferences recorded Sunday night.

Caucus Avoided
Neff and Clark said they did not believe the Stevenson forces would equal the 33 recorded in that same count.

The Keystone State tally Sunday was, all sides agreed, the push that started the Stevenson bandwagon rolling. Any loss in the leader's own delegation would have attracted considerable attention.

Whatever the reason, the matter of a candidate poll was carefully avoided at the breakfast caucus. Lawrence spoke out for Stevenson. Dilworth spoke out for Kefauver, and made a renewed bid for the backing of the delegates who pledged in advance to support the popular choice.

as long as he was price boss the industry would not get more than the $2.64 allowed under the Capehart Amendment to the controls law.

Wage Boost Given
Truman stuck with Arnall, and Wilson resigned in huff. He wrote the President, "You changed the plan we agreed upon."

No wage or other terms were announced at yesterday's White House session, but it was reliably learned the agreement includes these conditions:

A wage boost of 16 cents an hour for 650,000 basic steel workers; a highly modified form of union shop which allows present non-union members to stay out and gives new employees a 15-day escape period during their first month of employment; six paid holidays; three weeks vacation after 15 years service; a two-year contract dating from last June 30, with a wage reopener next June 30.
These concessions come to a total of just over 21 cents an hour for each worker. Pre-strike pay averaged slightly under $2 an hour.

The strike, longest in the nation's steel history, will have cost more than 21 million tons of the defense-vital metal by the time full production is resumed.
All six major companies were party to yesterday's agreement. They are U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Jones and Laughlin, Inland, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube. Together they account for 70 per cent of the nation's productive capacity.
